STREETSMART

ACTION AGAINST HOMELESSNESS

On any given night almost 15,000 people aged 55 and over experience homelessness. The impact of low income and rising living costs leaves many older Australians spending more than half of their income on rent, and many struggling to maintain or Older women are particularly vulnerable and are the fastest growing demographic of people experiencing homelessness. Older women are poorer than men their age, less able to maintain homeownership and less able to compete in the private rental market. Having spent their younger years in more unpaid work - many women lack superannuation in later years and are dependent on meagre Aged Pension to get by.

That's why we have partnered with StreetSmart to provide direct support for older women experiencing homelessness - and providing them with the resources to advocate for better services.

Every dollar raised in December and January will support the Women and Girls Emergency Centre and Housing for the Aged Action Group.

We think communities are stronger when they work together, and we are looking for socially minded businesses and philanthropists to match the funds our StreetFunders raise.

YOUR COMMUNITY FUNDRAISES, YOU MATCH THEIR EFFORTS, AND TOGETHER WE MULTIPLY OUR IMPACT.
