About HAAG

Housing for the Aged Action Group (HAAG) is the only Australian organisation of its kind specialising in the housing needs of older people. Established nearly 40 years ago as a grassroots movement, the organisation has developed a robust service delivery arm in Victoria and has a strong presence in advocacy for older people experiencing housing and homelessness related issues across the country.

Benefits of Membership

- Join a network committed to achieving social change and housing justice.
- Stay up to date with our campaigns, advocacy and events through our monthly e-bulletins and quarterly newsletter.
- Opportunities to collaborate and partner on collective issues.
