Housing information and support for older people

Do you need assistance to find affordable housing?

Home at Last is a free service that provides confidential advice, support and advocacy for people aged 50 years and older to assist them to find housing. Home at Last is available to any older person in Victoria on a low income. We will provide one-to-one assistance to you, or link you into a service that can help.

Our service includes:

- Information about affordable housing options
- Support for people at risk of homelessness to obtain social housing
- Advice and advocacy for people living in retirement housing
- Assistance to register for aged care support and system navigation

We are in the Goulburn Hume area.

Call 1300 765 178 and ask to speak to our local housing workers.

Home at Last is a service provided by Housing for the Aged Action Group (HAAG)

Home at Last is a service provided by Housing for the Aged Action Group (HAAG) Inc. HAAG is a community group with a membership base of older people.

HAAG is committed to the principles of social justice and aims to ensure every individual is treated with dignity and respect regardless of their age, cultural background, ability, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation or religion.
